INVITE TO TMA SOUTHERN AFRICA MONTHLY LECTURE SERIES:

FOUR MODELS FOR RESCUE: CONVERGENCE OR DIVERGENCE IN EUROPEAN INSOLVENCY LAWS?

By Paul Omar D.Phil, LL.M, LL.B, Cert. Eg., Barrister (Gray's Inn), Advocate and Solicitor (Malaya)

Briefly covers:

A look at the main developments in insolvency law reform in relation to four European Union member states viewed in the context of reforms occurring across Europe. This paper will seek to identify and outline areas of common interest that underpin recent reform in the four jurisdictions chosen with view to determining whether there is a common direction to these reforms, whereas there had previously been strong resistance to harmonisation of legislation.

Highlights from Paul's career:

- Paul has had a long and distinguished career in the legal profession in the UK, Europe and Malaysia before returning to academic life where he teaches on the LL.M in European and International Trade Law, especially on the modules in International and Comparative Company Law as well as International and Comparative Insolvency Law.
- He has been widely published, particularly in the field of insolvency law.
