

You teach about, research or study troubled companies

You are an academic or student.

You wish to network with fellow academics and students who focus on the industries and disciplines of turnaround, corporate renewal and business rescue.

You also wish to network with corporate and interim turnaround managers, with service providers and lenders to troubled companies, and with investors in troubled companies.

Moreover, you wish to increase your knowledge, further your education, and promote your services.

Join the community of professionals from all disciplines who share a common interest in strengthening the economy through the restoration of corporate value.

The premier professional community dedicated to corporate renewal and turnaround management

Join the global turnaround community

TMA-SA is an international affiliate of the Turnaround Management Association.

In terms of the license agreement TMA-SA members share in the knowledge and networking of TMA, which has 7 000 members world-wide, and which has been in existence since 1998.

TMA-SA represents the Southern African region - South Africa, Swaziland, Lesotho, Namibia, Angola, Zimbabwe and Mozambique.

Be part of what TMA-SA aims for

Vision

The vision of TMA-SA is to be recognised by the Southern Africa business community as the pre-eminent organisation in which turnaround and corporate renewal professionals from all disciplines choose to associate, market their services, and develop their professional skills.

Mission

TMA-SA's mission is to serve as a forum for turnaround and corporate renewal professionals from all disciplines to promote high standards of practice, foster professional development and enhance the image of TMA-SA members.

Core purpose

The core purpose of the TMA-SA is strengthening the economy through the restoration of corporate value.

TMA-SA's core purpose of the restoration of corporate value

Restoration of corporate value enables economic growth, and more specifically, allows distressed companies to continue in the economic mainstream, preserve jobs and pay taxes.

TMA-SA aims to equip its members to restore corporate value through all the stages of corporate decline.

Firstly, it will improve corporate renewal, business transformation and turnaround of declining and underperforming businesses through:

- Earlier and improved corrective action by management acting on early warning signals of decline and distress.

- More successful informal creditor workouts as problems worsen and become more acute.

Secondly, as insolvency steps in, it will enable more successful rescues of distressed businesses within the framework of business rescue legislation, and preserve jobs by preventing business failure.

Spreading the word about turnaround management.

TMA-SA is a member organisation of INSOL International - a world-wide federation of national associations for accountants and lawyers who specialise in turnaround and insolvency

Some members of the 2006 TMA-SA Board of Directors

Register as a TMA-SA member

Membership of TMA-SA is open to turnaround and corporate renewal professionals of all disciplines who share a common interest in strengthening the economy through the restoration of corporate value. Our members represent disciplines that:

- Manage, provide professional services to and fund troubled companies
- Govern, educate and study the industries and disciplines of turnaround, corporate renewal and business rescue across all the stages of corporate decline - from emerging problems to acute and worsening problems to insolvency.

Share membership with turnaround professionals of all disciplines

TMA-SA's strength comes from its diverse membership.

Turnaround managers

Corporate turnaround managers working in line management positions in turnaround situations.

Interim turnaround managers.

Service providers to troubled companies, and to their financiers

Turnaround practitioners and consultants in corporate renewal, business transformation and turnaround.

Lawyers, accountants and financial advisors.

General management consultants in strategy, leadership, finances, organisation and operations.

Insolvency practitioners, appraisers, auctioneers and liquidators.

Investors in and lenders to troubled companies

Restructuring executives of banks, bankers and other lenders.

Institutional investors, venture capital and private equity investors, development funds, etc.

Government

Individuals who are in the employ of a governmental agency or who are members of a legislative body or who are judges.

Academics

Individuals who are engaged in the academic profession and who participate or contribute to the turnaround management business through their teaching, writing, research or other professional activities.

Students

Individuals who are attending a college or university full time, and who are interested in pursuing studies related to the turnaround management business.

Registering as a member is easy! Simply complete the electronic membership application form at www.tma-sa.com

All members of TMA-SA are bound to the TMA Code of Ethics, which consists of three canons:

- General obligations and professional boundaries.
- Obligations to the client.
- Obligations to the profession and to colleagues.

Membership fees

	Paid Jan (renewals only)	Paid Jan to Mar (new)	Paid Apr to Jun (new)	Paid Jul to Sep (new)	Paid Oct to Dec, and including membership for the following year (new)
Regular member	R1 800	R1 980	R1 530	R1 080	R2 430
Government/Academic	R 850	R 935	R 725	R 510	R1 150
Full-time student	R 250	R 275	R 215	R 150	R 340

Enjoy the benefits of TMA-SA membership

Networking

TMA-SA provides a networking infrastructure and events for turnaround professionals of all disciplines to meet, socialise, interact, communicate and contact each other.

Apart from social and educational events for meeting, the organisation provides electronic communication media in the form of a web site, discussion forums, newsletters, centralised emailing and personal contact information.

Knowledge

TMA-SA serves as a clearinghouse of information and research pertinent to turnaround management and the turnaround industry, by capturing knowledge and distributing news, information, ideas and knowledge.

To this end it publishes newsletters and blogs, and maintains a knowledge base on the web site.

Education

TMA-SA fosters professional development opportunities for turnaround professionals of all disciplines.

It pursues improved methodologies and the raising standards of turnaround management, thereby enhancing the necessary competencies for successful practice.

Presently, it offers a monthly lecture series, and its members present papers at an annual turnaround management conference.

Promotion

TMA-SA promotes the organisation and its members as professionals committed to the highest standards of practice.

The web site lists a searchable directory of members per discipline.

Each member has its own web page to promote its services.

World-wide, members of TMA sees networking as the biggest benefit of membership.

A future benefit: TMA-SA will introduce the Certified Turnaround Professional (CTP) qualification

The CTP programme recognises professional excellence and provides an objective measure of expertise related to turnaround, workouts, restructurings and corporate renewal.

Applicants for certification must:

- Meet stringent standards of education, experience and professional conduct.
- Pass a comprehensive examination.

- Maintain their credentials by obtaining continuing education credits.

The South African CTP course and examination on turnaround and emergency management, managerial and financial accounting, tax and law will be of international standard.

However, it will be customised for the SA accounting standard and laws relating to tax and insolvency.

The CTP program allows for turnaround practitioners, lender workout and portfolio managers and some corporate executives to be eligible to become certified.

In addition, certain industry veterans who have made significant contributions to the industry and have demonstrated through their practices high degrees of technical and practical knowledge will be invited to become CTPs under an alternative process that exempts them from sitting for the exam.

The CTP programme will provide an objective measure of expertise. It is expected to be operational by 2008.

Contact TMA-SA

Administrator

Lynn Curlewis

Postal address

Private Bag X10
Lynnwood Ridge
0040

Physical address

Mirkwood Estate
Plot 26
Farm Klipkop JR 396
Gauteng

Phone numbers

Phone: 011 964 2895

Fax: 011 748 2809

Email address

admin@tma-sa.com

Web site address

www.tma-sa.com

Message from TMA-SA CEO: Ntombi Langa-Royds

Strengthening the economy through the restoration of corporate value is becoming more and more relevant as interest rates rise and the credit boom in South African comes to an end.

Moreover, new business rescue legislation is expected to open exciting new opportunities in the turnaround industry.

I therefore invite you to join our vibrant community of turnaround professionals to learn, exchange information and ideas, and work together for a better future for Southern Africa.

Turnaround Management Association - Southern Africa (Association incorporated under Section 21)

An International Affiliate of the Turnaround Management Association

Directors: Colin Batchelor, Prof. David Burdette, John Evans, David Gewer, Karl Gribnitz (Treasurer), David Harding, Ntombi Langa-Royds (CEO), Frans Maritz, Dale Pudney, Philip Reynolds (Secretary), Garrath Rosslee, Robin Taggart (Chair), Jan van der Walt (Deputy CEO), Patrick von Spreckelsen